

CERAMIC ARTS ASSOCIATION
OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA INC

The Ceramic Arts Association of Western Australia Inc. (CAAWA) was established in 1993 and is a non-profit organization run by a committee of dedicated members.

Its objectives are to promote excellence and innovation in ceramics, foster appreciation of handcrafted ceramics in the broader community, encourage the professional development of its members and act as an umbrella group in its representation of members on a state and national basis.

CAAWA also encourages and promotes awareness and appreciation of the excellence and creativity of Western Australian works in clay, both nationally and internationally. More information is available on our website.

CAAWA OBJECTIVES

- To promote among practitioners and non-practitioners the production and appreciation of ceramics and to act as an umbrella group to represent their interests.
- To raise the profile of clay within the community – culturally, educationally, politically and socially.
- To encourage the sharing of ideas, activities and information pertaining to ceramics and to develop strategies and structures for their implementation.
- To promote and facilitate the marketing of work of those practicing in ceramics in Western Australia.
- To promote ceramics education, at all levels, within the state and to facilitate the transition from student to practitioner.
- To encourage balanced, critical evaluation and writing concerning ceramics.
- To liaise with other Australian and international ceramics associations in order to develop a comprehensive vision.

MEMBER BENEFITS

Full membership privileges include voting at the AGM and the opportunity to attend workshops and participate in CAAWA exhibitions.

You are also eligible for representation on the Ceramic Arts website, receive PYRE, the quarterly newsletter, and regular bulletins delivered electronically. Free advertising for your studio/gallery hours online also in these publications.

As a member you will receive a membership card for discounts at The Potters Market.

The Study Group generally meets on the 3rd Thursday alternate months and all members are invited to attend the talks and demonstrations. It is also an opportunity to meet other members.
